Headline:

Heavy rain this evening, then windy and showery on Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:

Heavy rain and strong winds spreading northeast this evening, giving localised flooding. Showers following overnight, these most frequent in the north and west. Strong to gale force north-westerly winds developing by dawn in the north and west. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tuesday:

Frequent, locally heavy, showers through the morning, with coastal gales in the west. Sunny intervals in-between the showers, particularly during the afternoon, but feeling cool in the strong winds. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:

Much less windy on Wednesday, sunshine at first, patchy rain possible later. Breezier and cloudier on Thursday, but mostly dry. Bright on Friday after morning fog has lifted. Feeling warmer.
